

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2349 - HB 2757

February 10, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Removes driving while unlicensed and driving on a cancelled, suspended or revoked licenses from those considered qualifying offenses for declaring a driver as a Motor Vehicle Habitual Offender (MVHO). Authorizes a person previously declared a MVHO to petition for restoration of driving privileges if it was one or more of the above violations that qualified them as a MVHO.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

May result in some individuals being able to reinstate their licenses earlier than they could have in the absence of the bill.
